Legal Ethics: THE CORE ISSUES

The Conference on Legal Ethics at Hofstra University School of Law will host a gathering of law professors, lawyers, and judges who are interested in legal ethics. The Conference is presented to enhance the quality and foster the exchange of information in this area of law. Attendees will have the opportunity to formally and informally collect information and discuss current issues and problems in the area of legal ethics with nationally recognized legal ethics scholars and practitioners from around the country. Topics of the Conference include:

- * The Adversary System
- * Conflicts of Interest and Confidentiality
- * Working With Children and Families
- * The Process of Lawyer Regulation
- * The Future of the Legal Profession

Conference faculty include recognized experts in legal ethics who will present plenary discussions and direct panel workshops open to audience participation. Each speaker will be followed by a distinguished commentator. Members of the academic and professional communities as well as members of the general public are cordially invited to attend.

Conference registration materials are on pages 6 and 7 of this pamphlet.
