How Newly Appointed Supreme Court Justices Could Dramatically Change Key Areas of Constitutional Law

Monday, September 19
Noon-2 p.m. | Room 308

The new President taking office in January 2017 will likely have the power to appoint at least one if not two or three new justices to the Supreme Court. What are the issues of constitutional law that could be affected by the changes in the membership of the Court? Our panelists will examine and discuss some key areas of constitutional law that could change dramatically depending on the views of the new justice or justices on the Court.

Topics to be discussed include:
- CAMPAIGN FINANCE by Professor James Sample
- FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND PRESIDENTIAL POWER by Professor Julian Ku
- SECOND AMENDMENT AND IMMIGRATION by Professor Leon Friedman

A Q&A session will follow the panel discussion.
