To Gov.
Belcher

From Richard
Waldron

M 1833-001

NHPL

Mr. Belcher is in a very great Distraction at this time he wants to be in England for some time. Therefore it goes to England and left back to look and see what Richard Waldron was attacked by the Indians last week, also continued their Star-huntings, and their great doing the worst and capturing many people on our side. His reports are all killed.

The reason of my not writing sooner was that I might not have time to answer the questions you ask.

Yours
 Boston Sept 10 1750
