CONSTITUTION DAY:

Fred Korematsu and His Fight for Justice

Hofstra Law marks Constitution Day 2024 by staging a re-enactment of the trial and events leading up to the Supreme Court's controversial 1944 decision to uphold the constitutionality of interning Japanese-Americans solely on the basis of their race. The Hon. Denny Chin, a senior judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and his wife Kathy Hirata Chin, created the re-enactments and will preside with Hofstra Law students and faculty playing parts in the re-enactment. Professor Ku will moderate a discussion of the implications of the Korematsu case after the re-enactment.
