Dear Readers:

I started this project with the expectation of it being a simple job. One of my friends told me how wrong I was. How True!

This yearbook comes to you through the efforts of a special group of people. Their time and efforts have been greatly appreciated. We have not had a yearbook in over three years and hope this book will renew an old tradition.

I wish to thank Doug Rosenthal for his monumental efforts, for without Doug this book would not have been completed. Special thanks go to Andrew Nachamie for his yeoman’s effort in raising thousands through advertising. Also, I would like to thank Jean Collins and Rochelle Benjamin for overseeing the photo aspects of this book. Another individual who deserves my thanks, is Dan Feldman for all his aid in completing this book. Last but in no way least, I would like to thank Pamela Faison for her countless hours of copy work.

Yours truly,
STEWART J. ISMAN
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

P.S. Thank you Joe Donovan.
