ACTEC Law Journal welcomes the submission of articles. Articles should be submitted to the editor, Professor Kristine S. Knaplund at Kris.Knaplund@pepperdine.edu. Potential authors are encouraged to consult ACTEC LAW JOURNAL'S Information for Authors and Author's Agreement at <http://www.actec.org/public/JournalPublic.asp>.

The opinions expressed in the articles in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of ACTEC. Correspondence with respect to ACTEC business may be addressed to the Executive Director, The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel.

ACTEC Foundation is proud to provide funding to support the ACTEC Law Journal Student Editorial Board of the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University.

Members of ACTEC, libraries of ABA-accredited law schools, and board members of the National College of Probate Judges receive a complimentary subscription to ACTEC Law Journal. Fellows of ACTEC may view and download issues of ACTEC Law Journal at www.actec.org. Non-members may subscribe to ACTEC Law Journal for $60 per year or $15 per issue.

Established in 1949, The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) is a nonprofit association of more than 2,600 trust and estate lawyers and law professors throughout the United States, Canada and the world. ACTEC Fellows have made substantial contributions to the field of trusts and estates law through writing, teaching and bar leadership activities and demonstrate the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors.

Membership in ACTEC is by election of the Regents of the College. Individual lawyers and law professors who meet the membership criteria are nominated by fellows of ACTEC, and subject to careful review by state and national membership selection committees, prior to consideration by the Regents of the College.
