Howard and Iris Kaplan Memorial Lecture Series

The Howard and Iris Kaplan Memorial Lecture Series was established in memory of Howard Kaplan, a prominent attorney whose legal career was characterized by uncommon excellence and devotion to the highest standards of the profession. Iris Kaplan, his wife, was an enthusiastic supporter of the Lecture Series during the remainder of her life. The lecture series is supported by an endowment established by the Max and Victoria Dreyfus Foundation, Inc., and was initiated by Tony Kaplan, the son of Howard Kaplan and an alumnus of Hofstra University School of Law. The goal of the Kaplan lecture series is to bring jurists of distinction and prominence to the School of Law to address students, faculty, alumni, and the legal community on important and timely legal issues.
