DEDICATION

This issue of the Hofstra Labor Law Journal is dedicated to the late Edward F. Carlough. Mr. Carlough, President Emeritus of the Sheet Metal Workers’ International Association, had been the focal point, the inspiration, and the benefactor of many labor law activities of the Hofstra Law School.

Our first Chair and Distinguished Professorship bears his name. The Edward F. Carlough Chair in Labor Law was the first to be endowed at any law school in this country by a labor union and to be named for a labor leader. The annual Edward F. Carlough Labor Law Conference—the fourth was held last spring at the Tel Aviv University Law School in Israel—is an important scholarly and professional activity of the Hofstra Law School and is well received by the labor law community and by labor and management representatives. The conferences will continue annually, in honor of Mr. Carlough, and are planned to take place in the next three years in Washington, D.C., at the Stanford University School of Law, and at Cambridge University in England.

The endowment of the Carlough Chair has supported this Labor Law Journal which has developed an impressive list of subscribers in its four short years, and enjoys an eminent scholarly reputation.

These are the direct results of Mr. Carlough’s life, his leadership as an important union official, and his enthusiastic interest in the labor law activities of this Law School.

We grieve Mr. Carlough’s death not just because he was our friend and benefactor but because he was an enlightened, realistic, and imaginative labor leader who led his union to prominence in the American trade union field. He developed a unique cooperative relationship with the employers with whom his union had contracts, and negotiated for his members imaginative benefits and programs which were well ahead of his time. His death diminishes the ranks of those who are committed to sensible labor-management relations.

Eric J. Schmertz
Dean and Edward F. Carlough Distinguished Professor of Labor Law
