If you practice criminal law, you need . . .

The CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER

BNA’s all-in-one-place, authoritative information service that
• alerts you to all major changes in criminal law
• cuts down on your reading load
• saves you time for the actual practice of law

BNA’s CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER covers everything in the fast-changing criminal law field from interpretation and application of existing criminal law as reflected in the opinions and proceedings of courts at every level . . . to formulation of new legislation . . . to unconventional (and controversial) proposals for approaches to crime and the criminal.

Here’s what you’ll receive every week with The CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER:
• a crisply written review and analysis of the latest criminal law developments
• Supreme Court proceedings, arguments, actions, and filings
• decisions and proceedings of federal courts of appeals, and district courts — as well as the principal courts of all the states
• a roundup of notable actions in Congress and state legislatures
• digests of reports and recommendations of commissions, associations, committees, the bar, and the press
• full text of all opinions of the U.S. Supreme Court in criminal cases, and of significant federal legislation
• cumulative indexes every six weeks — and a final index for the six-month period covered by the Reporter volume

You get all that and a whole lot more (along with a sturdy filing and reference binder) when you get The CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER.

In this treatise one finds the condensed essence of 30 years of practical experience covering every aspect of partnership relationship from creation through operation to dissolution.

2 VOLUMES, 1976, 2nd Edition, Cloth-bound, Approx. 1400 Pages . . $55.00
It supersedes the 1971 Edition.

1976 edition — more than a revision

The explosion of vitally important decisions and rulings since the completion of the 1971 edition demanded a complete rewriting.

Over 75% of the revised edition is newly written material
