Foreign trained attorneys have a unique opportunity to undertake an in-depth exploration of the American legal system. Hofstra offers its full range of courses taught by expert faculty in every phase of American jurisprudence.

www.hofstra.edu/Academics/Law/law_llm_als.cfm

Hofstra's substantial international law curriculum and its intellectually diverse international law faculty offer students a challenging graduate legal specialization. Uniquely designed courses provide a solid understanding of differing legal systems and international law, and prepare the practitioner to operate successfully in international settings.

www.hofstra.edu/Academics/Law/law_llm_il.cfm

This very sophisticated, hands-on program has been established in response to the critical need for an interdisciplinary focus in resolving family issues. In addition to an advanced family law curriculum, students participate in clinical externships, ADR programs, interdisciplinary policy seminars, and intensive simulation courses.

*ABA application pending

Each 24 credit program may be completed on a full-time or part-time basis. Foreign trained attorneys may be eligible to sit for the New York State bar exam after the successful completion of an LL.M. program. For more information and to apply online, visit www.hofstra.edu/law and click on LL.M. programs, or e-mail llmadmissions@hofstra.edu.
